Suspect: H/M, long black hair
Vehicle: Grey Mitsubishi, MD Tag
 - Over the weekend from 5/19 to 5/22, a '99 Suzuki SUV was stolen from the 1900 block of East West Highway.

D2 Beat:

- On Friday 5/19, a female victim responded to the 3D station and reported that during argument with her estranged husband at his residence, 7500 Woodmont Avenue, he had deployed a taser, striking her in the neck. The suspect was later arrested at his residence.
Defendant: B/M, 35, 5'8"/150 lbs

- On Wednesday 5/17 at 2200 hours, a motion sensor alarm was activated at Tommy Joe's Restaurant, 4714 Montgomery Lane. Video surveillance shows an unknown race male entering the patio area through the side alley. The suspect was then seen going behind the bar and pouring himself a beer. The suspect left the restaurant via the same alley. It appeared that the suspect climbed over a gate in order to enter the patio area.

D3 Beat:

- Overnight from Sunday 5/21 to Monday 5/22, a residential garage burglary occurred in the 4000 block of Franklin Street. The garage door was found forced open. Nothing appeared missing.

E1 Beat:

- An attempted burglary occurred on Saturday 5/20 at 0200 hours in the 5000 block of Sentinel Drive. The victim awoke to sounds of someone kicking the front door. The victim yelled out and saw an unknown race male through the peep hole fleeing the scene. Investigation revealed that patio furniture had been moved away from a sliding door, but no entry was gained.
- On Monday 5/22 at 0010 hours MCP responded to an alarm call at Westland Middle School, 5511 Massachusetts Avenue. Motion sensors indicated activity in a maintenance shed located next to the gymnasium. Three teenaged suspects were seen preparing to leave the scene carrying a parking sign. Apparently they were able to gain access to the building via the roof.
Defendant: Christopher Ahn, A/M, 18, 5'6"/140 lbs
Defendant: Ryan Workman, W/M, 18, 5'7"/135 lbs
Defendant: Matthew Ritterpusch, W/M, 18, 5'7"/125 lbs
- On Sunday 5/21 at 2300 hours, MCP stopped a '00 BMW for speeding near the intersection of Royal Dominion Drive and River Road and discovered the vehicle had been reported stolen from PG County. The suspect was known to the victim but did not have permission to drive the vehicle.

E2 Beat:

- Four vehicle larcenies occurred this week. Two occurred overnight from Wednesday 5/17 to Thursday 5/18 on Richard Drive and on Tranford Road. Two overnight from Friday 5/19 to Saturday 5/20 occurred on Hampden Lane and Garfield Street. Three of the vehicles involved had been left unlocked. Auto stereos and other loose items inside the vehicles were taken.

E3 Beat:

- On Saturday 5/20 at 1900 hours, Montgomery Mall security approached a vehicle parked incorrectly and saw the driver fumbling to put a bottle of alcohol under the seat. The suspect attempted to flee the scene in his vehicle and was stopped by security. MCP found bottles of alcohol, marijuana, a box of Winchester .38 caliber ammunition, and a shoulder holster in the suspect's vehicle.
Defendant: Charles Carpenter, W/M, 21, 6'/150 lbs, goatee; address: 100 block of Elizabeth Street, Hagerstown
